AMENDMENTS.

The following is the correct description of a non-commissioned officer who has been awarded the Distinguished Conduct Medal:

110

War Office,
August 11, 1919.

The Secretary of State for War has received the following dispatch from Field Marshal Sir Edmund Allenby, G.C.B., G.C.M.G., Commander-in-Chief, Egyptian Expeditionary Force:

General Headquarters,
Egyptian Expeditionary Force,
June 28, 1919.

Sir—I have the honour to forward a dispatch describing events in Syria and Palestine, subsequent to the conclusion of the armistice with Turkey on October 31, 1918.

I have taken the opportunity in this dispatch to give a brief general summary of the campaigns in this theatre, and to express my thanks to some of those who have assisted me during my command of the Egyptian Expeditionary Force.

PART III.—APPRECIATION OF SERVICES.

The Medical Services have dealt successfully with the difficulties of evacuation over long distances in a country of undeveloped communications, and have combated with excellent results the chief scourge of Syria and Palestine, malaria. I desire to mention the good work of Major-General A. E. C. Keble and Major-General Sir R. H. Luce, as Directors of Medical Services at various periods.

I have the honour to be, Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
(Sgd.) EDWIN ALLENBY,
General, Commanding-in-Chief, Egyptian Expeditionary Force.

The undermentioned Majors relinquish the acting rank of Lieut.-Col. on re-posting:

Dated March 13, 1919.—A. C. H. Gray, O.B.E., M.B.
Dated July 22, 1919.—C. R. Millar, D.S.O.

Capt. Roland Harris Graham, M.B., from Special Reserve, to be Captain, dated April 1, 1919, but not to draw pay or allowances prior to July 1, 1919, with precedence next below M. B. King.

The notifications in the Gazettes of May 22 and July 5, 1919, regarding Temp. Capt. (Acting Major) H. C. Watson are cancelled.

The notification regarding Temp. Capt. William J. Woodman in the Gazette of July 2, 1919, is cancelled.

The undermentioned Temp. Capt., to be Captains, but not to reckon for pay or allowances prior to July 1, 1919:

Dated November 28, 1918.—Reginald Norman Porritt, with precedence next below L. W. Evans.
Dated May 10, 1919.—Alger Hoy Oram, M.C., M.B., with precedence next below L. S. C. Roche.

Temp. Capt. John McPhail MacKinnon, M.B., to be Lieut., and to be Temp. Capt., January 25, 1919 (but not to reckon for pay or allowances prior to July 1, 1919), with precedence next below J. D. A. Champney.
